

May 2012 – part 2

Hear Yee Hear Yee From EzGz, Hayes City Town Crier!

News About Renegades Who Rode the Range in the Merry Month of May

Well Dear Reader your Pard's have been competing far and wide and I thought you might want to know their Glorious news, so here goes!

TEX and Cat Ballou crossed over the Eastern boarder last month, to compete in the Texas State Championship held in Cleburn, Tx and did the Rio Grande Renegades Proud!

Cat garnered 1st Grand Dame! (and rest assured she was no doubt the best dressed!)

Tex won Traditional Wild Bunch

2nd Traditional Plainsman

and 4th (!) Senior Gunfighter! YeeeeHa!

About the same time one of your other RGR Pard's, Edward R.S. Canby aka Crosstie crossed over the Western boarder to shoot it up at the Arizona Territorial Smokeout in Payson. He won 1st Place Men's Frontier Cartridge 49'er while wielding cap n' ball revolvers! YaHoo!

And then a Posse of 3 Renegades rode South to compete in the 10th Annual Seven Rivers Regulators Shooting Shindig that was held at Carlsbad May 18th through 20th.

Texas Tiger: 1st Place, Ladies Wrangler

English Lyn: 1st Place, Men's Silver Senior

Lawless Lori Sue: 1st Place, Grande Dame

Texas Tiger: 1st Place, Ladies Long Range Single Shot Rifle

Lawless Lori Sue: 1st Place, Ladies Long Range Big Bore Lever Action Rifle

Texas Tiger: Overall Top Lady Shooter

Out of 80 shooters, the overall match standings were: English Lyn: 4th overall, Texas Tiger: 8th overall, Lawless Lori Sue: 36th overall!

So who stayed back Here to defend our Home Town Turf and Honor you might ask? Well twenty yes sir TWENTY Renegades rode through the Tijeras Pass over to Founders Ranch to compete at the BRR Cops (LEO) and Cowboys 2012 charity match to support the good works of Carrie Tingley Children's Hospital.

Well, to tell the Truth Dear Reader is that there were really and actually Nineteen RGR's and One RGR'r who donned the law enforcement garb to shoot for the Other Side. His name is two words that begin with a Boggus and end with a Deal!

That notwithstanding, the Cowboys and Cowgirl reigned victorious! Read On!.....

Well, Deputy Dangit, Crotchety Ole Bart, Old Black Dog, EzGz, Tijeras Pete, Whiplash Whitey, Granny Getchergun and the Sandiago Kid and of course that Boggus Deal who swings, I mean shoots, both ways didn't make that lofty list but we sure shot our best and were happy to be a part of this fine charity event. Don't think you could do it? Sure you can and next time there is a match like this just buck up and saddle up!

There was also a First Annual 5 Stand Match which also was a Glorious Victory for the Cowboys with Mica McGuire taking that Top Spot as well! If you haven't tried out the Sporting Clays Range I don't blame you! Those mean little orange hard tack pies come flying at ya from every direction!

Well that was a lot of fine shooting that went on these past few weeks, wouldn't you agree? By the way, I want us all to give a big Howdy and Welcome to our newest Renegade, Cheyenne Roy! And it's great to see El Vaquero Malo back on the Range and hope to see the rest of his family, Longarm Quilter, Sharpshooter and Calamity soon. Dirty Dean, Sourdough Lester, and Cap Mossman have reupped so watch out! Guns will be blazin'!

So now Dear Reader We all have to get to our Reloading, Dry Firing, and picking out just the Bestist Duds we own to compete in the Match of the Year, END of TRAIL! And Congrats! y !Brindis! to McCabe for winning the lucky draw for the BOGO certificate to EOT that was generously donated by SASS to our fine club!

So I know I'll see McCabe there! How about you?!!!

See You Down Range! Wagon's Ho and Onto EOT!

EzGz, Town Crier
